

June 2021 Newsletter

The Dance Academy
410.544.3220

Costume Details: The details regarding hair, tights, shoes, etc. were sent to the email address on file through your My Dance Academy account. If you have any questions or can't access this information – a master list is available for review at the front desk. There are several pairs of shoes in the lobby if you have found your little dancer has outgrown their shoes at the last minute you might check the bin before purchasing, also if you have a pair to donate to the cause you might make someone's day!

Last Day of Class: The last day of regular classes is Thursday, June 17 we move to the Fairground for Friday Dress and Saturday Show.

Recital Tickets: Your tickets will be available for pickup at the studio June 7. Please settle any previous balance due in order to be eligible to receive your tickets and participate in the recital. Any charge for additional tickets will be noted as Event/Recital fee.

Media: We will have the show professionally recorded so that you can enjoy the show! Please do not attempt to record the show as you will be impeding someone's view or distracting your fellow audience members. Digital link to the show will be sent to the email address on file about 3 weeks after the show and you may share it with your friends and family.

Pictures: Group Shots will be taken on stage at dress rehearsal and be sent to the email address on file. We will also have a backdrop available for you to take individual shots. We will have a DA filter available through Snapchat for the event – tag us in your social media!

Summer Is Here: Don't want to hear the never-ending phrase "I'm bored...." from your dancer this summer? Register today for summer classes and camps! Our classes are designed with your summer vacation in mind; we are offering classes in workshop format. The registration site will register you for a block of classes with one click. The link to your classes and account information portal can be reached thru the Dance Academy website using the "Registration" button. Please register early so faculty can be scheduled, tuition is not due for these classes until July so classes with low or no enrolled students will be canceled or combined by July 1st.

Youth American Grand Prix: Solo competitors are by invitation only. We are happy to offer any student age 9+ the ability to be a part of this international competition experience by auditioning for Ensemble pieces! Please let Noelle know if you are interested in Ensemble as soon as possible.

From all of us: Thank you for an amazing year, we are truly grateful for the opportunity to share our passion and love of dance with your children.