The Dance Academy

Dear Parents and Students:

Thank you for being a part of The Dance Academy family please keep in mind for Thanksgiving the studio will be closed Monday, November 22 through November 28. Classes resume Monday, November 29. We hope you have a safe and happy Thanksgiving!

Many thanks to our wonderful DA Families: We couldn't do it without you! Thank you so much for your continued support of our mission to provide the very best training. We are so happy to be back in the studio with the dancers and it is wonderful to see how happy the dancers are to be in class.

Cover Ups: A chill is in the air please make sure your dancer has warm clothes for legs and arms to protect their muscles from cooling too quickly after class.

There is still time to register: Getting a late start, it's ok! There is still time to register for classes now that fall sports have ended. Want to add tap, acro, or hip hop, need to start a technique or primary class? Simply log into your My Dance Academy account to select new classes.

New Primary Class: We will also be offering a Spring start Primary 1 class Wednesday 4:45-5:15 for students 3-4 years old beginning January. Registration is open.

Costume Measurements- Recital planning is underway!! We will measure for costumes at the end of November and early December. We have several options pending for venue or small showings at the end of the year we are staying flexible and will keep you posted! Follow us on social media at danceacademyweb for all the latest updates and info.

Calendar and Closures: Remember that any scheduled holidays or studio closures will be listed in the newsletter each month and reflects the most current information. Any studio closures for inclement weather will be posted to the website, Facebook, Instagram, and cancellation notices will be sent to the email address you have on file at My Dance Academy.

See the Nutcracker with Chesapeake Ballet Company: A majority of DA students perform each year in this holiday classic! Tickets are on sale now for December 11-19 performances at the Children's Theater of Annapolis. Support our local ballet company visit their website for more info.
